Summary of Events

I always find this period in the Latow year to be exciting...and challenging! Exciting because we have such a tremendous number and variety of opportunities to exhibit our work. And challenging just to keep track of them all! I count six special venues, as follows: BAC Art Auction (a bit late for that now, you had to submit your entry a month ago), 3

From the President

Club Photography Exhibition and Social, International Digital Challenge, Fireside Lounge, Kaleidoscope, and the Latow Juried Show. What a lineup! This is in addition to regular Evaluations in January and March. So lots of opportunity to show Latow and "the outside world" your talents.

I must mention further our 3 Club Photography Exhibition and Social, Feb 9 - a wonderful evening at BAC, nibbles and drinks, special AV shows prepared by Latow, and also by Hamilton and Trillium Clubs. This is a great opportunity for meeting and renewing acquaintances with members of the other Clubs. Everyone, not just Guild or Club members welcome. Please take a few of coordinator Dave Lawson's colourful postcard sized flyers and show your friends and their spouses. Put a group together (modest $20 ticket) and come for an exciting evening. The social highlight of Burlington in February!

Also in early February, we have two events to chase away the mid winter blues. First is John Pingree's Field Trip to the Guelph Butterfly Conservatory, Feb 2. Sounds like a pleasant and warm way to spend a chilly mid winter day, and give that new Christmas equipment some action. And then our regular General Meeting Feb 5 features Jerry Soltys with southwestern USA images, which again should allow those of you who think there are better seasons than winter, a bit of relief.

Meanwhile, participate in and enjoy the photo opportunities presented by our wonderfully varied climate!

Cheers...Gary B

From the Groups & Members

Studio Lighting Equipment: Key # 31 that accesses the studio lighting equipment is now restricted to those members with their membership cards signed by myself on the back. The front desk will ask to see your signed card when you request the key. No signed card; no key. Also, we have made great progress on clearing out the back storage room. It is much easier to access the light stands now. Cheers, Edward Eastman

Filed Trip: Wings of Paradise Butterfly Conservatory. The outing is on Saturday February 2, 2008 at 8:00AM. We will meet in the conservatory parking lot at 7:50AM. The conservatory opens specially for Latow at 8:00AM. We have the run of the place until it opens to the public at 10:00AM. We can stay after 10:00, but have to put away tripods. Cost per person is $10.93 including taxes.

B&W Groiup: On February 26th, the Black & White group will be doing the first of two pinhole photography sessions. This session will be held primarily in the studio and the goal is to go over the concepts as well as build a pinhole camera. We will be loading it with 'film' in the darkroom before the night is out. I have gathered up a number of boxes, coffee cans and other items to use as our lensless cameras, however I believe that our studio group leader would be very unimpressed if I opened a black matt spray paint can in the studio to paint their interiors. If you are interested in coming to this or the second session, please let me know in advance so that I can ensure I have enough pre-prepared 'camera housings' for everyone who is coming. Email is preferred, phone is fine as well. Thanks, Don Mallory (djmallory@cogeco.ca - 905-297-0602)
